VOL. 26.

which were never used. Even during the John Porter at the second battle of Bull

the line to Mezieres, was the wooded hill chateau, as he calls it, of one Monsieur his staff stood during the day, having rather more extensive but less centra ours, where stood the King, Count Bismarck, Von Roon, the war minister; Gen.

Moltke, Generals Sheridan and Forsythe, probability the decisive battle of the war.

nature, the object of the Prussian generals rible circle formed and well soldered toarily attached to the army of the Crown Prince. This was the position of the troops about 9 o'clock on Thursday morning, September 1, and no great advance took place until later than that, for the artillery at first had all the work to do .-

Still further to the left, near Doucherry,

TWO PRUSSIANS TO ONE FRENCHMAN.

The number of Prussian troops engaged

NOTICE. PPLICATION WILL BE MADE TO THE A next Legislature to altach a portion of New Hanover County to Sampson County.

CHARLOTTE FEMALE INSTITUTE, CHARLOTTE, N. C. THE 13TH ANNUAL SESSION OF THIS INstitution commences the 30th of Eeptember. and continues until 30th June, 1871. An accomplished corps of Teachers has been employed in all branches usually taught in first class Female Seminaries.

For circular and catalogue containing full particulars as to terms, &c., address
REV. R. BURWELL & SON, Charlotte, N. C.

REFERENCES : G. W. Williams, Esq., Wilmington, N. C. Col. John D. Taylor, Rev. Mr. Sprunt, Duplin county, N. C. Dr. Henry Faison, Col. Wm. E. Hill,

A. F. Williams, Esq.,

THE next session will begin Sept. 15th and Expenses $325 to $375. For particulars apply CLERK OF FACULTY, Lexington, Va. 244 $10w

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

NEW HANOVER COUNTY. In Probate Court, August 25th, 1870. Hanson F. Murphy, Administrator d. b. n. of William Keith, deceased, Plaintiff, Petition for

Against sale of paraper, the bridge itself was never materially damaged. On the projecting spurs The French were completely surrounded and wife, Margaret Ann Jones, and others, heirs at law of said deceased, Defendants.

Jones and wife, Margaret Ann Jones, are nonresidents of the State of North Carolina. It is therefore ordered that publication be made in the WEEKLY JOURNAL, published in the city of Judge of Probate of said Court, at his office in the Court House in said city, at 10 o'clock a. m. them and a decree of sale granted according to the prayer of the Plaintiff's Petition.

Davis and Murphy Plaintiff's Attorneys.
J. C. MANN, Judge of Probate. STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SUPERIOR COURT-DUPLIN COUNTY. Jacob Lane and wife, Chelly Ann Lane, M. P. Martin and wife, E. M. Martin, by their Attorney, son, Mary M. Simmons, Osco Bryan, Lula Bryan, Mada Bryan, Jinsey Bryan and Charley Bryan.

from the affidavit of the plaintiffs-I. That the defendants cannot, after due dili-II. That a cause of action exists against said height of battle they stood as idle as Fitz gence, be found in the State. III. That said defendants are not residents of Run. We imagined that they must have this State, but have an interest in property been undisciplined Gardes Mobile, whom IV. That the places of residence of the said defendants are unknown to the said plaintiffs. It is ordered:

publication in the WILMINGTON JOURNAL once a week for six weeks successively, and said Sum-

Given under my hand and seal of SEAL office this 5th September, 1870.

J. D. SOUTHERLAND, Clerk S. Court Duplin County.

physiology and relations of our sexual system, and the production and prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before railway bridge, blown up by the French to given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, protect their right, was a conspicuous ob M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting ject. Right above the railway bridge, or work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings. All young married people, or those crowned by the new and most hideou contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this Pave. It was here the Crown Prince and book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any address on receipt of 50 cts. Ad- view, and therefore less desirable than dress, Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce street, AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE, -No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the no- to say nothing of your correspondent. torious QUACKS-native and foreign-who ad vertise in this or any paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's Book and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life. Dr. Young can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications, at his office, No. 410 Spruce street, above Fourth, Phila-

THE GREAT BATTLE AT SEDAN. Graphic Account of the Terrible Contest.

The following is from the correspondent of the New York Tribune, at the headquarters of the King of Prussia, eight miles from Sedan, Thursday night, Sep-THE PRUSSIANS TAKING THEIR POSITION.

After their defeats on the 30th and 31st ult., the French retreated en masse on evening of Wednesday, from 5 to 8 o'clock, I was at the Crown Prince's headquarters the Saxons, one corps d'armee, with King and attacked the Prussians. The Prusat Chemery village, some thirteen miles William's guard; also, a corps d'armee in sians waited quietly and patiently, endur- Holden. The flags should be half-masted his paternal parentage to Count Flahault, from Sedan, to the south southwest on the a forced march to the left, in the direction of Donchery and Mezieres, in order to shut in Marshal McMahon's army in the west, and so drive them against the Belgium frontier. I learned from officers of the Crown Prince's staff that at the same time, while we were watching regiment after regiment pass through Chemery, the Albert of Saxony, were also marching rapidly to close on the doomed French army on the right bank of the Meuse, which they crossed at Remilly on Tuesday, the 30th, in the direction of La Chapella, a small village of 930 inhabitants, on the road from Sedan to Bouillon, in Belgium, and the last village before crossing the frontier.

When I had seen the last regiment dash | were 20,000 Wurtemburgers, ready to cut through (for the pace at which they went off the French from Mezieres, in case of can really not be called marching in the their making a push for that fortress. ordinary sense,) I rode off, about a quarter past eight in the evening, for Vendresse, where the King's headquarters were. At 7 o'clock Thursday morning my servant is estimated by General Moltke at 240,000, came to awake me. Just as I got to my and that of the French at 120,000. We horse King William drove out in an open know that McMahon had with him on parriage with four horses for Chevauge, Tuesday 120,000 men, that is, four corps, rer. Sedan. Much against my will, I was com- Gen. De Failly, now under Gen. Le Brun, of State. pelled to allow the King's staff precede me that of Felix Douay, brother of General J. W. A. Sanfor on the road to the scene of action, where Abel Douay, killed at Weissenburg, and Attorney General. I arrived myself soon after 9 o'clock. It the fourth corps, principally composed of Joseph Hodgson, of Montgomery, for was impossible to ride fast, all the roads the Garde Mobile, the name of whose Superintendant of Education,

mington

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 16, 1870.

being blocked with artillery, ammunition, commander has escaped me. McMahon, wagons, ambulances, etc. As I rode on to although wounded, commanded in chief will save the buyer the price of a new pair of the crest of the hill which rises sharply on the French side. It is almost needless about 600 or 700 feet above the little ham- to say that the real commander in-chief of stockings, they are beautiful, to say the least. let of Chevange, nestled in a grove below, the Prussians was Von Moltke, with the a most glorious panerama burst on my Crown Prince and Prince Albert of Saxo- Leitch, Esq., was unanimously nominated summer away not to return yet awhile. view. As General Forsythe, of the United by tweediately next in command. States army, remarked to me later in the DEGINNING OF THE BATTLE. day, it would have been worth coming There were a few stray cannon shots merely to see so splendid a scene, without fired, but the real battle did not commence "battle's magnificent stern array." In the until 6 o'clock, becoming a strarp artillery lonely valley below us, from the knoll on light at 9, when the batteries had got withwhich I stood with the King and staff, we in easy range, and shells began to do secould see not only the whole valley of the rious mischief. At 11:35 o'clock the mus-Meuse, but also beyond the great woods, ketry fire in the valley in the rear of Se-Bois de Loup, and Franchural, into Bel- dan, which had opened about 11:28, begium, and as far as the hilly forest of came exceedingly lively, being one con-Numo, on the other side of the frontier .- tinuous rattle, only broken by the growl-Right at our feet lay the little town of ing of mitrailleurs, which played with Sedan, famous for its fortifications by deadly effect on the advancing Saxon and Vauban, and as the birthplace of Turenne, Bavarian columns. General Sheridan, by ter at Williamston, lately attempted to whose side I was standing, told me that leave the country "between two days" he did not remember ever to have heard after having borrowed all of the money such a well sustained small arms fre. It that he could from Radical friends cutside, pointed to express to Hon. Geo. W. The French had flooded the low made itself heard above the war of batte- and registered letters inside, the Post Brooks, U. S. District Judge, "their high meadows in the valley before coming to ries at our feet. the railway bridge at Baz ille, in order to stop the Germans from advancing on the stupidity, for one can find no other word broken railway bridge over the Meuse, for t, the French had failed to mine the near La Villette, had silenced two battebridge at Bazeille, and it was of immense ries of the French guns at the scot of the service to the Prussians throughout the bare hills, already mentioned, near the battle. The Prussians actually threw up village of Floring. At 10 minutes past 12 earthworks on the iron bridge itself to pro- o'clock the infantry, no longer supported tect it from the French, who more than by their artiflery, were compelled to retire once attempted early in the day to storm to Floring, and soon afterwards a junction the bridge in the hope of breaking the between the Saxons and Prussians behind Bavarians' communication between the Sedan was announced to us by General right and left banks of the Meuse. This Von Roon, who was eagerly peering they were unable to do, and although their through a large telescope, as being safely cannon shot had almost demolished the completed. From this moment the result parapet, the bridge itself was never made of the battle could no longer be coubtful. of the hill, crowned by the woods of La and brought to bay. At 12:55 we were all Marfee, of which I have already spoken, astonished to see crowds of retreating TT APPEARING TO THE SATISFACTION OF the Bayari and had posted two batteries of French infantry on the hill between Florthe Court by the affidavit of the Plaintiff that six pounder rifled breach loading steel ing and Sedan, Prussian battery making the very end of the day with the siege the receding ranks. The whole hill for a guns of Sedan across the Meuse. Still quarter of an hour was litterally covered further to the right flank, or rather to the with Frenchmen running rapidly. Less plain before the village of Ba- of Sedan, on the road leading from Ba- for a discharge from custody. and crowned by the woods of La east of the town. At one olclock the George W. Bryan, Mary E. Dick- Publication, tween this wood and the town were several orous fire upon the advancing Prussian French camps, their white shelter tents columns of the third corps, whose evident standing out clear among the dark fruit intention it was to storm the hill norththroughout the day huge masses of troops of the position on that side.

TERRIBLE SCENES OF CARNAGE.

At 1:15 o'clock yet another French battery near the wood opened on the Prussian columns, which were compelled to keep the French generals dared not bring out final rush at the hills, and in order to avoid against their enemy. To the Prussian left, offering so good a mark to the French and near these French camps, separated shells. Shortly afterwards we saw the first I. That service of the Summons be made by from them by a wooded ravine, was a long Prussian skirmishers on the east of La bare hill, something like one of the hills on Gavenne hills, above Toney. They did not mone shall be deemed to have been served at the Long Island. This hill, on which was seem in strength, and General Sheridan, expiration of the time of publication prescribed some of the hardest fighting of the day, who was standing tehind me, exclaimed formed one of the keys of the position of "Ah! the beggars are too weak. They the French army. When once its crest can never hold that position against all was covered with Prussian artillery the those French." The General's prophecy whole town of Sedan was completely at soon proved correct, for the French, adthe mercy of the Prussian guns, as they vancing, at least six to one, the Prussians were not only above the town, but the male and female, in everything concerning the lage of Illy, set on five early in the day by five minutes they came back again, this French shells, Bouth of this a broken ame in greater force, but still terribly inferior to those huge Franch masses. "Good leavens! the French Cuirassiers are going to charge them," cried General Sheridan, and sure enough the regiment of Cuirassiers, their helmets and breast-plates flashng in the September sun, form in sections of squadrons and dash down on the scattered Prassian skirmishers. Without leigning to form in line, (the squares are never used by the Prussians,) the infantry received the Cuirassiers with a crushing quick fire at about a hundred yards disance, loading and firing with extreme rapid and unfailing precision in the dense French squadrons. The effect was startling. Over went horses and men in Having thus endeavored to give some numbers, in masses, in hundreds, and faint idea of the scene of what is in all the regiment of proud French Cuirassiers went hurriedly back in disorder, went back I will next give an account of the position of the different corps at the commence- faster than it came, went back scarcely a ment of the action, premising that all regiment in strength and not at all a regimovements were of the simplest possible ment in form. Its comely array was suddenly changed into shapeless and helpless crowds of flying men. The moment the being merely to close the crescent of troops Cuirassiers turned back the brave Pruswith which they began into a circle, by sians actually dashed forward in hot pureffecting a junction between the Saxon suit at double quick, the infantry plainly corps on their right and the Prussian corps pursuing the flying cavalry. Such a thing on their left. This action took place has not often been recorded in the annals about noon, near the little village of Olley, of war. I know not when an example to on Bazeille ravine, behind Sedan, of which compare precisely with this has occurred. I have already speken. Once their terri-There was no more striking episode in the battle. When the French infantry saw gether, it grew smaller and smaller until Sedan and encamped around it. On the at last the fortifications of Sedan itself their cavalry thus fleeing before the foot were entered. On the extreme right were soldiers, they in their turn came forward eserve behind them. The guards and ing a rapid and telling fire from the chassemain road. At half past 5 we saw that Saxons, then about 75,000 strong, were pots, until their enemy had drawn so near there was a great movement among the all day on the right bank of the Meuse, as to be within 100 yards from them. troops encamped all around us. Soon I between Rubecourt and La Chapelie, at Then they returned with the needle gun learned that a whole Prussian corps, those which latter village Prince Albert, of the rapid fire from the chassepots, and the lent from Prince Frederick Charles' second Saxony, who was in command of two corps French infantry could no more endure the army by themselves, passed the night of cue they had come. The infantry fled in Thursday. The ground from Rubecourt its turn, and followed the cavalry to the to the Meuse was occupied by the 1st place from which they had come, that is, Bayarian Corps. The 2d Bayarian Corps | behind a ridge some 500 yards on the way extended their front from near the Bazeille to Sedan, where the Prussian mitrailleurs, railway bridge to a point on the high road with their tearing fire, could no longer from Doucherry to Sedan, not far from reach them. The great object of the the little village of Torcey. Below the Prussians was gained, since they were not Saxons and Guards, eighty thousand hill on which the Crown Prince was placed driven from the crest of the hill they strong on the Prussian right, under Prince the ground from Torcey to Illy, through fought to hold. After a tremendous batthe large village of Flourig, was held by the, the Prussians having completely sur-

the 1st and 3d Prussian Corps belonging rounded Sedan, the Bavarians entered the to Prince Frederick Charles, and tempor- tortifications of Sedan. Alabama Democratic Convention. This body, which assembled in Mont gomery on Thursday, was composed of men of standing and influence, whose enlistment in any cause is of itself a guaranty of success. The Advertiser says that it was decidedly the largest as well as the most intelligent convention that ever assembled in Montgomery. Forty-nine counties were represented, and well represented. The following nominations were

R. B. Lindsay, Colbert, for Governor. Dr. E. H. Moren, of Bibb, for Lieutenant Governor. L. F. McOoy, of Lee, for State Treasu about three and a half miles south of his own, that was lately commanded by L. J. Parker, of Monroe, for Secretary J. W. A. Sanford, of Montgomery, for

STATE NEWS.

of Lumberton, held last Tuesday, Giles vises those who have been spending the for Mayor that town.

Board of Commissioners, being under the two counties of that section. impression that the old Sheriff could hold over. Wherenpon Sheriff Bryan appeared and gave bond for $45000.

"WHERE THE WOOD-BINE TWINETH. "-We learn from the Tarboro Southerner that one Ben Goodman, the Radical Post Mas- gen and others. office. He foundered a borrowed horse, in appreciation of his fidelity in regard to At 12 o'clock precisely a Prussian bat- adoption, but was finally overtaken at town in that direction. With their usual tery of six gans, on the slope above the Rocky Mount, and is now probably in jail at Williamston.

Two Offices and One Officer -The attention of Congress and of the General Assembly ought to be called to the anomalous practice now in vogue among the Radicals, putting two or three offices of trust and profit in the hands of one man. fice at the hands of the Legislature, and Samuel T. Carrow, for instance, is the U. S. Marshal of the District of North Carolina and at the same time Sheriff of the county of Beaufort. Here are two highly responsible and highly profitable offices in the hands of one man, when there are so many equally capable men to fill them, without employment. This ought not to be. Let it be remedied. -Ral. Sentinel.

THE BURGEN HABEAS CORPUS CASE .the Court by the affidavit of the Plaintil that say potential the Defeddants, Elizabeth Larkins and David Knipp guns, which kept up a duelle until good practice with percussion shells among George B. Burgen, who has been in prison several days by commitment of Judge Brooks, of the U. S. District Court, on Wilmington, for six weeks, notifying the said cast, for curline was a circular one, cresthan half an hoar afterwards General Von failure to give the bail required of him, Defendants to appear before me, J. C. Mann, cent at first, with Sedan in the center, like Roon called our attention to another was brought before Judge Bond, of the U. a star on the Turkish standard, was an un- French column in full retreat to the right | S. Circuit Court, yesterday, on a petition or demur to the said Petition, or judgment pro zeille, termina ing about a mile and a half zeille to La Gavenne wood. They never | Messrs. Bailey and Badger appeared for confesso will be entered in this cause as to from Seden. At the woods near Rube- halted until they got to a small red roofed the petitioner, and urged his discharge court, midway, that is to say, in a line house on the outskirts of Sedan itself. Al- on the ground, first, that Judge Brooks had Witness, J. C. Mann, Judge, &c. Date above. from Bazeille north, there is a ravine, most at the same moment, Gen. Sheridan, no jurisdiction in the case, and, secondly, watered by a tiny brook, which was the who was using my opera glass, asked me the proceedings were irregular. The opscene of the most desperate struggle and to look at a third column moving up a posite ground was taken by Messrs. Batof the most feightful slaughter of the broad grass road through La Gavenne tle and Merrimon, and very ably, and, we cottages and fruit laden orchards, important Bazeille ravine, to the north- gal requisition had been complied with.

The decision of Judge Bond had not Order for Garrenne, which russ down to the French batteries on the edge of the wood been given when we left the Court room Service by valley of which I have just spoken. Be- towards Toney and above it, op. 1ed a vig- it will probably be rendered this morning. P. S. On the conclusion of argument, IN THE ABOVE ACTION, IT APPEARING trees. In these camps one could see east of La Gavenne, and so gain the key after consideration of the questions involved remit his decision to the Marshal.

> UNITED STATES SENATOR.-HON. JOSIAH TURNER, JR., EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL: Dear Sir-Several names have been menthe next United States Senatorship from North Carolina. Permit me to add to the number the name of the gallant and gifted removed. The sensible letter of Col. R. was called by a second wounded man .-H. Cowan seems to have settled this point. When he returned he found that his first Doubtless all the distinguished gentlemen | friend had fallen back and died. whose names have been mentioned in connection with the Senatorship, who are laboring under disabilities, endorse and sanction Col. Cowan's position.

GRAND CELEBRATION.—The people of Edgecombe are making preparations to have a grand Conservative celebration at Rocky Mount on the 29th of September. and substantial character. A large number of eminent Speakers will be present, a magnificent barbeene is to be provided, and the festivities will close with a ball at night. B. H. Brown, Esq., has been appointed Chief Marshal, Jno. H. Thorp, Treasurer, W. T. Gay, Chief Commissary, and W. F. Mercer, Chief of the Culinary rope. The life of Department.

hundred dollars for the capture of Maicus of all his powers upon one purpose. He Morrow and Jame: A. Morrow, against whom indictments have been found for brother of Napoleon the Great, and who ing the vigilance of the guards, he crossed the murder of Jasper Vogle, of Cherokee was for a time King of Holland, and Hor-tense the daughter of the Empress Jose-

"Brig. Gen'l" and "Colonel and Aid-de-Camp to the Governor" Stephen A. Dougthroughout the State in regret at this de- with whom Hortense sustained rather of the French republic by an overwhelmplorable resolution on the part of that gallant young warrior.

O. HUBBS, the Radical sheriff elect, of Craven county, was admitted to office on army and the Crown Prince, were making which have been formed into a little extra Prusian fire than the cavalry to whose resopposed by Mr. E. R. Stanley, the only from Elba, he was taken by him to the publican principles, and the most zealous recent history we need not account. Imresponsible member of the Board.

JUDGE SHIPP was in Raleigh yesterday. He had not then taken the oatis of office, but, the Sentinel states, will do so as soon as a Judge can be found to administer Engineers are engaged in locating the mother. route of the Air Line Railroad through Spartanburg. Mr. Clayton, of Asheville, N. C., has taken a large contract, and has in company with his mother, took up his for the office of President for the term of arrived at Spartanburg Court House with his laborers, mules, etc., and will at once the German language. Subsequently they was, of course, triumphantly elected. A Watters, Esq. No cards. undertake the work.

Samuel A. Harris, Esq., a highly respectable citizen of Charlotte died at his residence on the night of the 7th inst. A young man named Samuel Robertson.

about 18 years of age, was found dead on a road near Newbern last Wednesday. Appoplexy was said to have been the cause. Halifax county sent off its first bale of Battle Bryan, the old Sheriff of Edgethe Sheriff elect, will not contest the mat-

Sickly.-The Weldon News says that there is much malarial sickness through-AT a meeting of a portion of the citizens out the Roanoke country just now, and ad-

The stockholders of the Edenton and H DING OVER .- Alex McCabe, Sheriff Norfolk R. R. Co. will meet in Edenton > will hear at Chambers, in Greensboro' tomorrow, the arguments in the matter of the Bench warrants issued for Kirk, Bar-At a meeting recently held in Baltimore. a committee of prominent citizens was ap-of North Carolina." The Sentinel is authorized to aunounce Robt. R. Henley, a colored Conservative of Randolph county, as a candidate for Assistant Doorkeeper to the Senate. Harvy Daney, of Elgecombe, to our own Imperial edicts of 1804 and 1805, which countries. But these were soon restored, ed Conservative, is also a candidate for ofwe think that he is fairly entitled to it.

The Bealth of Chief Justice Chase,

A dispatch to the Boston Journal, dated Providence, R. I., September 5th, says: was able to take his daily walk without of France. He afterward expanded this any assistance. There has been no relapse work into the Idees Napoleonennes, wheretwo weeks or more ago."

The Boston Traveller adds: "The illness of Chief Justice Chase was caused by exposure to the heat, and the doctor who attended him now reports him out of danger.'

Vice President Colfax to Retire from Pub

NEW YORK, Sept. 6,

Colored Hands Going South,

Messrs. Justis and McDonald shipped from Richmond, Va., on Tuesday, by way Judge Bond stated that he would take the of General Mahone's consolidated line, papers and his notes home with him, and fifty farm hands to Mississippi. This Richmond agent of the Air-Line, "there ville, Southside and Virginia and Tennessee roads alone." These hands are transshifting their ground till ready for their tioned in the Sentinel in connection with ported safely and expeditiously in cars attached to mail trains.—Rich. Whig.

"Dear Mother, Farewell." Matt. W. Ransom, of Northampton, than phalian, going about to help the wounded, France. For this Laity was sentenced to glish and French editions of it were soon whom a more suitable man cannot be came upon a soldier of the Prussian infan- a five year's imprisonment and to pay a brought out both in this country and Engfound in the State. Able, eloquent, large- try, who had been shot through the body fine of five thousand francs. These facts hearted, patriotic, true as steel to the honor and was leaning heavily against a wall.— were looked upon by the French element of North Carolina, Gen. Ransom has "Will you drink, comrade?" asked the as the commencement of a new outbreak proved himself a faithful and devoted son Westphalian. Pale and faint, the poor from Abrenenberg, and they accordingly of his native State, and his talents will do fellow shook his head, and feebly indica- asked that Louis be driven from Switzerhonor to her in any position. Gen. Ran- ted that he would like his lips to be mois- land. Some of the counties being indis som's disabilities have been removed by tened. When this had been done, he ask- posed to thus trample upon the rights of and threatened to soon establish a repub-MARRIAGE GUIDE.

Were not only above the town, but the were forced to retreat down the hill to Congress and, therefore, there will be no ed in a whisper whether the Westphalian one who had made himself a citizen of the town was almost within musket range of the columns of the left law the will seek reinforcements from the columns difficulty about his admission, if elected. Could write. The latter at once took out country, France sent an army to the fron-Being a private instructor for instruction for our Legislature will not take the risk "with brightening eye," dictated the by force. Louis quitted the country and led by the Opposition in May, 1869, show-Senate whose disabilities have not been dress. At this moment the Westphalian his

THE MAN OF DESTINY.

HIS GRADUAL RISE AND SUDDEN DOWNFALL.

A SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

Friday saw the sudden collapse of one of the most extraordinary men of history The preparations are of the most extensive and of modern times; a man whose ambition, at the outset of his career. trampled out the liberties of a nation, and at its finale deluged one of the fairest coun-

CHARLES LOUIS NAPOLEON BONAPARTE,

Gov. Holden offers a reward of three a man can accomplish by a concentration 25th of May, 1846, he made was born in Paris, April 20, and was the youngest son of Louis Bonaparte, the tense, the daughter of the Empress Josephine. A scandal which has gained conwhich Hortense like other members of the elected a representative in the National war against Prussia, hoping to humble siderable credence, from the reputation doubtful relations. However this may be, ing vote. At this period he had a difficult he was born in the midst of unquestionable game to play. While embracing every op- napartes. surroundings, and his legitimacy further portunity to revive the most agreeable and established by the Emperor and Empress glorious recollections of his uncie's rule, serving as sponsors at his baptism. An it was necessary for him to make the most Champ de Mars, and there, at the age of disavowals of all ambitious designs. seven, presented to the Deputies of the people and the army. When Napoleon embraced him for the last time at Malmaison, previous to his departure for St.

> HIS CHILDEOOD. retired to Rome. THE EDUCATION OF LOUIS.

pire and the residence of the family in with himself upon the throne, by such a Paris, was superintended by his mother, majority as made the vote practically eards. the Queen of Holland. After their retire- unanimous. The goal at last was reached, ment to Switzerland the principal tutor of and the second Empire was proclaimed dence of the bride's uncle, Mr. J. Lenard, by the youth was M. Lebas being on December 2, 1852, the anniversary of the Rev. William H. Munroe, Roctor of Emanuel a stern Republican, and Louis being of an the coup d'etat, and Charles Louis Naponew cotton a few days ago. It was grown irrepressible nature, his first convictions leon Bonaparte ascended the throne as upon the farm of George M. Phillips, near were those of Republicanism. How short Napoleon III, Emperor of the French, by quent history proves. For a time he was tion was gradually made by the leading Battle Bryan, the old Sheriff of Edge-on the made some progress in the science of the lead, and for nearly eighteen years he Elizabeth G. Swinson, aged goven and four years. gunnery, but was not distinguished for his has reigned without interruption from In this city, on the 10th inst., BETTY SMITH brilliancy as a scholar. there during discovered distributed or so little ranges like my loss of every restaused in the

HIS CAREER IN ITALY. When the revolution of 1830 broke out, and Louis Phillippe was elevated to the married Eugenie Marie de Guzman, Connthrone of France, Louis petitioned him to tess de Teba, a scion of an old noble fam be allowed to return to France, but the ily of Spain. In company with her he wily Orleanist refused. He, in company with her he wily Orleanist refused. He, in company with his elder brother, then repaired to ling received with general favor by both Italy, where they took an active part in the Court and the people, and made a revolution of 1831. The interference of Knight of the Garter by the Queen. On elect of Edgecombe, upon the advice of on the 15th inst. It is stated that $90,000 France and Austria put an end to the Tus. March 16, 1856, the Empress gave birth to connsel, declined to qualify before the have been subscribed to this enterprise in can movement, and the brothers were ban- a boy, known as the Prince Imperial, and itsed from the Papal dominions. The eld- bearing the special cognomens of Napoer brother, Napoleon, died at Pesaro, a leon Eugenie Louis Jean Joseph. The

IT is expected that Associate Justices victim to anxiety and fatigue, and Louis, birth of this blessed baby was the occa-Dick and Settle, of the Supreme Court, also prostrated by illness at Aucona, was sion of great rejoicings throughout France. joined by his mother, and, after spending a short time in England, eventually relabors, and published successively "Polit- pool in 1856. On England fell the hard-the military aspiration of the nation.

fourth brother of Napoleon, Louis, instead of that of the elder brother Joseph. This was the beginning of the of Napoleon, which ended only at Sedan on Friday. It fired his soul with dreams "The recent reports of the precarious of future power, to the realization of which condition of the health of Chief Justice he ever afterwards directed his best ener-Chase were untrue. He is rapidly re- gies. His Reverles Politiques were written covering from the illness brought on by to demonstrate the necessity of an Emhis trip to Lake Superior, and yesterday peror to the true republican organization or recurrence of the first attack, which was in the plans of the Emperor were extolled and earnestly commended to France for adoption.

AMBITIOUS CAREER

HIS FIRST ATTEMET.

Not limiting himself to writing books, he put himself in active communication with officers of the French army, and in foreigners, the abandoned him; but Nathe early part of 1835 his designs became poleon caused his troops to remain, and evident, and, after maturing his plans, he persisted in an effort at setting up the left Ahrenenberg in June, 1836, for Baden. Archduke Maximilian of Austria as Em-Baden. In August he paid a secret visit peror. The whole project was a wretched The Brooklyn Union prints a letter from to Strasbourg, which he regarded as the whole battle. On the north, behind wood, immediately above Sedan, doubt- thought, conclusively argued, that Judge Schuyler Colfex announcing his definite most vulnerable point for his attempt, the town, rises a hill dotted with less to support the troops defending the Brooks had jurisdiction, and that every le- and unalterable retirement from public and, after securing promised co operation pressed at home because of the Emperor's from fifteen of the officers of the garrison, proceeded to Switzerland, while his adher-Strasbourg from October 30th till Novem- try early in 1867. ber 9th, and then conducted to Paris. His fall. Last fall, we are informed by the to the United States. This he did, under Emperor returned to his literary labors, were 15,000 hands shipped over the Dan- find his mother on her death bed in Switz- elaborate work entitled "Histoire de Ju-HIS EXPULSION FROM SWITZERLAND.

rents, including Genot Montholon and General Voison. But one man in the garing to escape to his steamer. In October many of whom were indebted to his uncle for their ranks and titles.

SECOND ATTEMPT

HIS CONVICTION. full of romance and adventure, shows what spent six years of his eventful life. On the and the plebiscitum of May, which received about 7,350,000 affirmative to about 1,550,-

000 negative votes, nominally ratified the so-called reforms in the constitution which from Ham in a disguise, and thus deceivhad been inaugurated by the Emperor at various times. the Paris revolution of 1848 and the downfall of Louis Phillippe. He was at once

PRINCE PRESIDENT

THE COUP D'ETAT AND THE EMPIRE.

years, and on December 2, 1851, having Helena, both were much affected, the child imprisoned every statesman in Paris from wishing to follow his uncle, and being whom he would be likely to encounter oppacified with great difficulty by his position, dissolved the assembly, and seized the most distinguished generals who were suspected of disaffection, he After the battle of Waterloo had decided proclaimed bimself Dictator. He then ofthe fate of the Napoleonic dynasty, Louis, fered himself to the people as a candidate residence at Augsburg, where he learned ten years, and, tolerating no opponent, removed to Switzerland, where they passed | constitution conferring upon him absolute | their summers, while in the winter they sovereign power was proclaimed, and under it he ruled for one year. Then he appealed to the people again,

During the continuance of the First Em- and in response the Empire was restored, lived they were, or how readily he could the grace of God and the will of the peoadapt himself to circumstances, his subse- ple. The recognition of his imperial staRATES OF ADVERTISING

1 square. of 10 lines or less, for each and every

Special Notices will be charged $200 persquare foreachand every insertion.

All Obituaries and private publications of every character, are charged as advertisements.

No advertisement, reflecting upon private character, can, under ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, be

On the 29th of January, 1853, he had

HIS EUBSEQUENT HISTORY. In 1854 he embarked in the war against tired to his mother's chateau at Ahren-Russia which was waged in alliance with berg, in Iturgan, Switzerland. Here he England, Sardinia and Turkey, and termidevoted his leisure in 1832-35 to literary nated successfully by the fall of Sebastoical Reveries," "Political and Military est part of the fighting, while France Considerations on Switzerland," and a reaped the greater share of the glory and "Manual on Artillery." In the first named profit resulting from it. Early in 1858 an work he declared his belief that France attempt was made upon the Emperor's could be regenerated only by one of Na- life by one Orsini, who had concocted his his anxie y to leave the state of his the unwarranted arrests made in the State poleon's descendants, as they alone could plans in England in connection with Dr. reconcile the republican principles with Bernard, a Frenchman residing in London. Lord Palmerston, therefore, attempted to amend the English criminal code so that it would apply effectively to The death of the Dake of Reichstadt, in such conspiracies, and his defeat in Par-1832, left him the successor of Napoleon liament led to a temporary suspension of i., not by legitimate descent, but by the the cordial relations between the two set aside the usual order of descent, and although Dr. Bernard was acquitted by an fixed the succession in the line of the English jury. In 1859-'60, the Emperor espoused the cause of Victor Emanuel against Austria, and in person led an army to his assistance, defeating the enemy on several decisive fields, and terminating the war by the victory of Solferino, June 21, 1860. By the peace of Villa Franca, July 11th, Austria ceded Lombardy to Victor Emanuel, whose territory was further increased by the annexation of the duchies, Napoleon being recompensed by the cession of Savoy and some neutral Swiss territory to France.

> THE MEXICAN FLASCO. In 1861 he became a party with England and Spain in the outrageous assault upon the Mexican republic. When his allies discovered that he had ulterior objects in view, and was intent upon something more than the mere vindication of the rights of failure, not less for France than for Maximilian, and great dissatisfaction was exinterference. Finally he abandoned Mexico, leaving the unfortunate Archduke to ents were perfecting the plot. The pro- his fate, in answer to the repeated protests ject, however, was a miserable failure, and of the United States, the last detachment Louis was taken prisoner, detained at of the French troops evacuating the coun-HIS LITERARY LABORS. Once after his ascent of the throne the protest, but soon returned to Europe to publishing in 1865 the first volume of an les Cresar." The literary and historical merits of this work were unquestioned, as In 1838, Lieutenant Laity, one of Na- its Imperial author enjoyed unusual facilpoleon's adherents, published with his ities in its preparation. It was printed at sanction a favorable account of the attempt | the Imperial Printing Office, and the pre-After the battle of Saarbruck, a West- on Strasbourg, which was well received in face bore the date of March 20, 1862. En-of the reign of Louis Napoteon, Emperor of the French, has been stormy indeed .-The opposition to the Empire and the Napoleon dynasty has steadily gained strength cious journalists lampooned the "Son of his Uncle," and incited the "Reds" of ed such an alarming increase that Napoleon at once became alarmed, and proto gain the throne of France. On the 6th September, certain reforms in answer of August, 1840, he landed near Boulogne, to demands of the people. Still further warned by the boldness of the Liberal party in the Corps Lerison responded to his summons to join don the system of personal governhis standard, and after some maneuvring ment and an irresponsible Ministry which had been inaugurated by the coup d' etat of 1851; and on the 2d of January of the he was put upon his trial before about one present year, M. Emile Olliver, the leader hundred and sixty of the Peers of France, of the more moderate Liberals, was called to the head of the Ministry. But this concession did not serve to satisfy the people. and in the disturbances which followed, M. Berryer, the great French advocate, the arrest and imprisonment of Rochefort, tries of the world in blood, and all, as be appeared as counsel for Louis, and made a the editor of La Marseillaise in January himself had repeatedly stated, for the clever but vain defence. He was sentenced last, a formidable uprising in Paris was 'glory of France," and for the perpetua- to perpetual imprisonment, and his adhe- only averted by the presence of a veteran tion of his dynasty and of Casarism in Eu- rents for various terms ranging from five army of 100,000 men. When Rochefort to twenty years. He was shortly afterwards was safely disposed of for six months conveyed to the citadel of Ham, where he another appeal to the people was made,

THE PRESENT WAR.

Thus affairs stood when the Emperor seized upon a flimsy pretext to declare forever Germany, to excite around him the enthusiasm of ardent young France by gaining for it fresh glory on the battle field, and to establish upon a firm and lasting foundation the dynasty of the Bo-

Taking the field in person, he endeavored to lead the French armies to victory, and to centre around him the glory of becility and incapacity characterized his movements, until at last forced by the defeats which the armies of France had sus-But this deception lasted scarcely three tained, he abandoned all command to his generals. Sick in body and mind, worn with fatigue and anxiety, Friday he surrendered to King William.

MARRIED.

In this city, on the evening of the 8th inst., by the Nev. Geo. Patterson, Rector of St. John's Church, Mr. LEE ANGEL, of Virginia, to Miss GODINA, eldest daughter of the late W. W. Richmond papers please copy.

In the Presbyterian Church, at Concord, N. C., on the evening of the 6th of September, 1870, by the Rev. E. il. Harding, assisted by the Rev. William Barringer, General RUFUS BABRIN-GER to Miss MARGABET TAYLOR LONG, daughter of Dr. Osborn Long, deceased. No

P. E. Church, Dr. HENRY G. FLANNER to Miss EMMA D. MORRISON, both of this city.

DIED.

On the 31st ult., of typhoid fever, in Bruns-